New for 2024

For a list of proposed, announced and enacted personal income tax changes for 2024, see Personal income tax: What's new for 2024.

New items are flagged with NEW! throughout.

Before you file

Complete your income tax and benefit return using the information in the tax package along with your information slips, receipts and supporting documents.

Even if you did not have any income in the year, you still have to file a return to get the benefits, credits and refund you may be entitled to.

Who has to file a return

File a 2024 return if:

- The CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) sent you a request to file a return
- You have to pay tax or want to claim a refund
- You or your spouse or common-law partner want to begin or continue receiving credits and benefits, such as:
 - the Canada child benefit (CCB) and related provincial and territorial benefits
 - the goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax (GST/HST) credit and related provincial and territorial credits and benefits
 - the Canada carbon rebate (CCR) (depending on your province or territory of residence)
 - the guaranteed income supplement (GIS)

Note

If you have a spouse or common-law partner, they also have to file a return. For more information, see Booklet T4114, Canada Child Benefit and related federal, provincial, and territorial programs, and Guides RC4210, GST/HST Credit, and RC4215, Climate Action Incentive Payment.

- You want to claim the Canada workers benefit (CWB) and receive advanced Canada workers benefit (ACWB) payments
- You and your spouse or common-law partner are jointly electing to split pension income
- You disposed of capital property (which may be a principal residence) or realized a taxable capital gain in 2024
- You have to repay all or part of your old age security (OAS) benefits or employment insurance (EI) benefits
- You have not repaid all of the amounts that you withdrew from your registered retirement savings plan (RRSP) under the Home Buyers' Plan (HBP) or Lifelong Learning Plan (LLP)
- You have to contribute to the Canada Pension Plan (CPP) for 2024 (your total net self-employment income and pensionable employment income is more than $3,500)
- You are paying EI (employment insurance) premiums on self-employment income or other eligible earnings
- You incurred a non-capital loss in 2024 that you want to be able to apply to other years
- You want to transfer unused tuition fees or carry forward unused tuition, education and textbook amounts to a future year
- You want to report income that would allow you to contribute to an RRSP (registered retirement savings plan), a pooled registered pension plan (PRPP) or a specified pension plan (SPP) to keep your RRSP (registered retirement savings plan) deduction limit for future years up to date (see Schedule 7)
- You opened a first home savings account (FHSA) in 2023 or 2024 and want to keep your FHSA participation room up to date (see Schedule 15)
- You want to carry forward the unused investment tax credit on expenditures that you incurred in 2024

- You want to report income that will allow you to increase your Canada training credit limit

Deceased persons

If you are the legal representative (executor, administrator or liquidator) for the estate of a person who died in 2024, you may have to file a 2024 return for that person.

Send the legal document that names you as the legal representative, such as a complete copy of the will, grant of probate or letters of administration, to the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency).

If there is no legal document naming a legal representative, you may request to be the representative by completing Form RC552, Register as Representative for a Deceased Person.

Send the document to the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) online using Represent a Client or by mail to the tax centre of the person who died.

For more information, go to Doing taxes for someone who died.

Residential ties

To determine an individual's residency status, all of the relevant facts in each case must be considered, including residential ties to Canada and the length of time, purpose, intent and continuity of the stay while living inside and outside Canada.

Significant residential ties

These ties to Canada include:

- a home in Canada
- a spouse or common-law partner in Canada
- dependants in Canada

Secondary residential ties

These ties to Canada may be relevant in determining your residency status and can include:

- personal property in Canada, such as a car or furniture
- social ties in Canada, such as memberships in Canadian recreational or religious organizations
- economic ties in Canada, such as Canadian bank accounts or credit cards
- a Canadian driver's licence
- a Canadian passport
- health insurance with a Canadian province or territory

For more information, see Income Tax Folio S5-F1-C1, Determining an Individual's Residence Status.

Factual residents

You are a factual resident of Canada for tax purposes if you keep significant residential ties in Canada while living or travelling outside Canada.

Non-residents

You are a non-resident for tax purposes throughout any period that all of the following apply:

- You normally live in another country
- You do not have significant residential ties in Canada
- You are not a deemed resident of Canada

Deemed non-residents

You are a deemed non-resident of Canada if you would have been considered a resident of Canada (or deemed resident of Canada) but you are instead considered a resident of another country under a tax treaty between Canada and the other country.

The rules that apply to non-residents of Canada also apply to deemed non-residents of Canada. This mean you complete your return the same way as a non-resident of Canada.

Deemed residents

You may be considered a deemed resident of Canada for tax purposes if you were not a factual resident of Canada (because you did not have significant residential ties to Canada) and either of the following apply:

- At any time in 2024, you were living outside Canada and were a government employee, a member of the Canadian Forces including their overseas school staff, or working under a Global Affairs Canada assistance program.

Note

In certain circumstances, this can also apply to the family members of an individual who is in one of these situations.

- You stayed in Canada for 183 days or more in the tax year and are not considered a resident of another country under the terms of a tax treaty between Canada and that country

Which tax package is for you

Use the income tax package for the province or territory where you resided on December 31, 2024, unless one of the following tax situations applies to you:

Which tax package is for you

Tax situation	Tax package
You were a resident of Quebec on December 31, 2024	• Income tax package for residents of Quebec (federal tax only) • Revenu Québec Income Tax Return
You are filing for someone who died in 2024	Income tax package for the province or territory where person resided at time of death
You were a newcomer to Canada in 2024	Income tax package for the province or territory where you resided on December 31, 2024 For more information, go to Individuals – Leaving or entering Canada and non-residents
You left Canada permanently in 2024	Income tax package for the province or territory where you resided on the day you left Canada For more information, go to Individuals – Leaving or entering Canada and non-residents
You had residential ties in more than one province or territory on December 31, 2024	Income tax package for the province or territory where you had your most important residential ties For example, use the income tax package for Ontario because you go to school in Quebec but reside in Ontario

You resided outside Canada on December 31, 2024, but kept significant residential ties with Canada ¹	If considered a factual resident of Canada: • Income tax package for the province or territory where you kept residential ties • Form T1248, Schedule D – Information about your Residency Status
You resided outside Canada on December 31, 2024 and were considered a deemed resident or non-resident of Canada	Income tax package for non-residents and deemed residents of Canada
You were a deemed resident of Canada on December 31, 2024 reporting only income from a business with a permanent establishment in a province or territory	Income tax package for the province or territory where you earned the income
You were a non-resident of Canada throughout 2024 reporting only income from employment in Canada or a business or partnership with a permanent establishment in Canada	• Income tax package for the province or territory where you earned the income • Guide T4058, Non-Residents and Income Tax

¹ If you are also considered a resident of another country under a tax treaty, see Deemed non-residents of Canada.

Note

If you were a non-resident reporting other types of Canadian-source income, such as taxable scholarships, fellowships, bursaries, research grants or capital gains from disposing of taxable Canadian property, you must also complete Form T2203, Provincial and Territorial Taxes for Multiple Jurisdictions, to calculate your provincial and territorial taxes.

Situations needing a specific guide

If you were a non-resident of Canada or only resided in Canada for part of 2024, you may also need one of the guides listed in the following table.

Situations needing a specific guide

Tax situation	Guide or Information
You were a non-resident employed in Canada, carried on business in Canada or disposed of a taxable Canadian property	Guide T4058, Non-Residents and Income Tax
You were a non-resident who received rental income from real or immovable property in Canada	Guide T4144, Income Tax Guide for Electing Under Section 216
You were a non-resident who received certain other types of income from Canada (including pensions and annuities)	Electing under section 217
You were a non-resident at any time in 2024 receiving OAS (old age security) pension from Canada	Guide T4155, Old Age Security Return of Income (OASRI) Guide for Non-Residents

Due dates

Your 2024 return and payment are due on or before the date below that applies to you:

- For most people, the return is due April 30, 2025, and payment is due April 30, 2025

- For a self-employed person (and their spouse or common-law partner) with business expenditures that relate primarily to a tax shelter investment, the return is due April 30, 2025, and payment is due April 30, 2025
- For a self-employed person (and their spouse or common-law partner) other than those listed above, the return is due June 15, 2025, and payment is due April 30, 2025
- For a deceased person (and their surviving spouse or common-law partner), go to Doing taxes for someone who died

Exception

When a due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday recognized by the CRA \(Canada Revenue Agency\), your return is considered on time if the CRA receives it or if it is postmarked on or before the next business day. Your payment is considered on time if it is received on the first business day after the due date. For more information, go to Due dates and payment dates.

Penalties and interest

Penalties

The CRA may charge a penalty if any of the following applies:

- You filed your return late and owe tax for 2024
- You failed to report an amount on your 2024 return and also failed to report an amount on your return for 2021, 2022 or 2023
- You knowingly, or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence, made a false statement or an omission on your 2024 return

The late filing penalty may be higher if the CRA issued a demand to file the return and assessed a late filing penalty on a return for tax year 2021, 2022, or 2023.

Interest on your balance owing

If you have a balance owing for 2024, the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) will charge compound daily interest on any unpaid amount owing for 2024 starting the day after the balance is due. This includes any balance owing if the CRA reassesses your return.

Interest on your refund

The CRA will pay compound daily interest on your tax refund for 2024 in some situations. The calculation will start on the latest of the following three dates:

- the 30th day after the balance due date for the tax year
- the 30th day after you file your return
- the day you overpaid your taxes

Cancel or waive penalties and interest

The CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) administers legislation, commonly called taxpayer relief provisions, that gives the CRA the discretion to cancel or waive penalties and interest when taxpayers cannot meet their tax obligations due to circumstances beyond their control.

The CRA (Canada Revenue Agency)'s discretion to grant relief is limited to any period that ended within 10 calendar years before the year in which a relief request is made.

For penalties, the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) will consider your request only if it relates to a tax year or fiscal period ending in any of the 10 calendar years before the year in which you make your request. For example, your request made in 2024 must relate to a penalty for a tax year or fiscal period ending in 2014 or later.

For interest on a balance owing for any tax year or fiscal period, the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) will consider only the amounts that accrued during the 10 calendar years before the year in which you make your request. For example, your request made in 2024 must relate to interest that accrued in 2014 or later.

Taxpayer relief requests can be made online using the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency)'s My Account, My Business Account (MyBA) or Represent a Client digital services.

You can also fill out Form RC4288, Request for Taxpayer Relief – Cancel or Waive Penalties and Interest, and send it

- online using My Account, My Business Account or Represent a Client
- by mail to the designated office for your province or territory of residence, as shown on the last page of Form RC4288

For information about how to submit documents online, go to Submit documents online.

For details on the required supporting documents, relief from penalties and interest and other related forms and publications, go to Cancel or waive penalties or interest at the CRA.

Ways to file your return

NETFILE

Use the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency)'s secure service to complete and file your return electronically using certified tax preparation software or a web application. Go to File your taxes online: Understand NETFILE for a list of software and applications, including some that are free.

Note

Your personal information, such as your name, date of birth, and address, must be up to date before using this service. To update your information, go to Change your address.

EFILE

EFILE is a secure CRA \(Canada Revenue Agency\) service that lets authorized service providers, including discounters, complete and file your return electronically. For more information, go to EFILE for individuals.

Auto-fill my return

This is a secure CRA \(Canada Revenue Agency\) service that allows you or your authorized representative to automatically fill in parts of an income tax and benefit return with information that the CRA has available at the time of the request.

You must be registered for My Account and use NETFILE-certified software or your representative must be registered for Represent a Client and use EFILE-certified software.

For more information, go to Auto-fill my return.

SimpleFile by Phone (automated phone service)

This is a free, secure, and easy to use CRA \(Canada Revenue Agency\) service available to eligible individuals who have a lower or fixed income and simple tax situation that stay the same from year to year.

Individuals will receive an invitation letter by mail or email notification through My Account. The invitation provides the information you need to use this service. You will be asked to verify some personal information and answer a series of short questions using the keypad on your phone. There are no forms to fill out or calculations to do. You do not need to speak to an agent to use this service.

File a paper return

Complete and file the return included in the tax package. If you need a paper version of other forms and publications, go to Forms and publications or call 1-800-959-8281.

Get help doing your taxes

The following services may help you complete your tax return based on your personal tax situation.

Free tax clinics

If you have a modest income and a simple tax situation, the Community Volunteer Income Tax Program (CVITP) or Income Tax Assistance Volunteer Program (for residents of Quebec) can complete your tax return for free.

To find out if you qualify for these services and find a tax clinic, go to Free tax clinics or call the CRA at 1-800-959-8281.

If you want to become a volunteer, go to Volunteer to do taxes for people in your community.

Tax Information Phone Service (TIPS)

For tax information by telephone, use the CRA's automated service, TIPS, by calling 1-800-267-6999.

TIPS is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Individual enquiries by phone

Call 1-800-959-8281 from Canada or the United States.

Telephone agents are available:

Monday to Friday: 6:30 am to 11 pm (EST.(Eastern Standard Time))

Saturday: 7:30 am to 8 pm (EST.(Eastern Standard Time))

Sunday: Closed

Public holidays: Closed

For business enquiries, call 1-800-959-5525.

Individuals in the territories

Call 1-866-426-1527 for tax and benefit information for residents of Yukon, the Northwest Territories, and Nunavut (Calls from area code 867 only).

For businesses in the territories, call 1-866-841-1876.

Teletypewriter (TTY) and Video Relay Service (Canada VRS) users

If you use a TTY (Teletypewriter) for a hearing or speech impairment, call 1-800-665-0354.

If you use the Canada VRS (Video Relay Service) application, call 1-800-561-6393.

If you use an operator-assisted relay service, call one of the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency)'s regular telephone numbers instead of the TTY or Canada VRS number.

Gather your documents

Gather all of the information slips, receipts and supporting documents that you need to report your income and claim any deductions, credits or expenses.

Missing slips or receipts

File your return on time even if you do not have all of your slips or receipts. You are responsible for reporting your income from all sources to avoid any penalties and interest that could be charged.

If you have not received your slips by early April or if you have questions about an amount on a slip, contact the payer.

If you know you will not be able to get a missing information slip by the due date, use your final pay stub or statement to estimate your income and deductions, credits and expenses that you can claim. Enter the estimated amounts on the appropriate lines of your return.

Supporting documents

When you file a paper return, attach your supporting documents to your return. If you make a claim without providing your documents, the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) may disallow the credit or deduction you claimed and this could delay the processing of your return.

Whether you file by paper or electronically, keep your supporting documents for 6 years in case the CRA asks to see them later. Also keep a copy of your return and notice of assessment or reassessment.

Attach the following documents to your paper return:

- a copy of your information slips, such as a T4, T4A and T5, and provincial slips such as the Relevé 1 Slip, if applicable
- your completed forms and schedules, when instructed
- Form T776, Statement of Real Estate Rentals, or a statement showing your rental income and expenses for line 12600 – Rental income

Note

If you are missing an information slip, attach a copy of your final pay stub or statement instead. Keep your original documents. Also, attach a note stating the payer's name and address, the type of income involved and what you are doing to get the slip.

After you file your return

Notice of assessment

The notice of assessment (NOA) gives you a summary of your tax and benefit assessment and explains any changes made to your return. It also tells you if you have a refund, a zero balance or a balance owing.

It gives you other important information such as your:

- unused registered retirement savings plan (RRSP) contributions
- RRSP (registered retirement savings plan) deduction limit and available contribution room
- first home savings account (FHSA) participation room
- Canada training credit limit (CTCL)
- other amounts and balances that you may want to carry forward to a future year

You can view your NOA (notice of assessment) in NETFILE-or EFILE-certified tax software and My Account right after the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) receives and processes your return. For more information, go to Understand your NOA.

Processing time

The CRA's goal is to send you a notice of assessment, as well as any refund, within:

- two weeks, when you file online
- eight weeks, when you file a paper return

Note

These timelines apply to returns that are received on or before the due date.

To look up processing times, go Check CRA process times.

Tax reviews

When the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) receives your return, it is usually processed and a notice of assessment is sent to you. However, each year, the CRA conducts a number of reviews to promote awareness of, and compliance with, the laws that the CRA administers.

If your return is selected for a more detailed review before or after it is assessed, you will receive a letter or phone call from the CRA. It's important to know that a review is not a tax audit. In most cases, it's simply a routine check to ensure that the information that you provided on your return is correct.

If you receive a request from the CRA asking for documents or receipts, you should reply within the timeframe given. Make sure to include all of the information that the CRA asks for and that the copies of your documents are clear and easy to read.

Remember that the CRA is here to help you. If you cannot get the documents that the CRA is asking for, have questions, or need more time to reply, let the CRA know. If you do not reply to the CRA's request, the CRA may adjust your return and your claim or deduction may be disallowed.

For more information, go to Income tax review? You've got this!.

How to change a return

If you have more information that could change the result of a return that you have already sent to the CRA, (Canada Revenue Agency) do not file another return for that year. Wait until you receive your notice of assessment before asking for changes.

Generally, you can only request a change to a return for a tax year ending in any of the 10 previous calendar years. For example, a request made in 2025 must relate to a tax year after 2014 to be considered.

You can change your return in any of the following ways:

- using the ReFILE service if your return was filed electronically using a certified software. For more information, go to ReFILE: Online adjustments for income tax and benefit returns
- signing in to My Account for Individuals and using “Change my return”
- sending Form T1-ADJ, T1 Adjustment Request, by mail, as well as any supporting documents, if you have not sent them before to support your original claim

Note

If the CRA has assessed your taxes owing for a year that you did not file a tax return, you must file a paper return for that year if you want to make a change.

For more information, go to How to change a return.

Digital services for individuals

The CRA (Canada Revenue Agency)'s digital services are fast, easy and secure!

My Account

My Account lets you view and manage your personal income tax and benefit information online.

Use My Account throughout the year to:

- view your benefit and credit information and apply for certain benefits
- view your notice of assessment or reassessment
- change your address, phone numbers, direct deposit information, marital status and information about children in your care
- manage notification preferences and receive email notifications when important changes are made to your account
- check your tax-free savings account (TFSA) contribution room, your registered retirement savings plan (RRSP) deduction limit and your first home savings account (FHSA) participation room
- track the progress of certain files and enquiries you have submitted to the CRA
- make a payment online to the CRA with the My Payment service, create a pre-authorized debit (PAD) agreement or create a QR code to pay in person at Canada Post for a fee (for more information on how to make a payment, go to Payments to the CRA)
- view and print your proof of income statement
- manage authorized representatives and authorization requests
- submit documents to the CRA
- submit an audit enquiry
- manage multi-factor authentication settings

To sign in to or register for the CRA's digital services, go to:

- My Account, if you are an individual
- Represent a Client, if you are an authorized representative

Receive your CRA mail online

Set your correspondence preference to "Electronic mail" to receive email notifications when CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) mail, like your notice of assessment, is available in your account. For more information, go to Email notifications from the CRA.

Electronic payments

Make your payment using:

- your Canadian financial institution's online or telephone banking services
- the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency)'s My Payment service at Pay now with My Payment with your activated debit card from a participating Canadian bank or credit union with a Visa® Debit or debit Mastercard® logo (does not include credit cards)
- My Account, under "Accounts and Payments"
- pre-authorized debit (PAD) at My Account for individuals which lets you:
 - set up payments to the CRA from a Canadian chequing account on preset dates starting in five or more business days
 - pay an amount due, repay overpaid amounts or make instalment payments
 - view your account history and modify, cancel or skip a payment (for more information on PAD, go to Pay by scheduled pre-authorized debit \(PAD\) through CRA online services)

- your credit card, Interac e-transfer or PayPal through one of the third-party service providers for a fee

For more information, go to Payments to the CRA.

For more information

If you need help

If you need more information, go to Taxes or call 1-800-959-8281.

Direct deposit

Direct deposit is a fast, convenient and secure way to receive your CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) payments directly in your account at a financial institution in Canada. For more information and ways to enrol, go to Direct deposit or contact your financial institution.

Forms and publications

The CRA encourages you to file your return electronically. If you need a paper version of the CRA's forms and publications, go to forms and publications or call 1-800-959-8281.

Electronic mailing lists

The CRA can send you an email when new information on a subject of interest to you is available on the website. To subscribe to the electronic mailing lists, go to CRA electronic mailing lists.

Tax Information Phone Service (TIPS)

For tax information by telephone, use the CRA's automated service, TIPS, by calling 1-800-267-6999.

Teletypewriter (TTY) users and Video Relay Service (Canada VRS) users

If you use a TTY (Teletypewriter) for a hearing or speech impairment, call 1-800-665-0354.

If you use the Canada VRS (video relay service) application, call 1-800-561-6393.

If you use an operator-assisted relay service, call the CRA's regular telephone numbers instead of the TTY or Canada VRS numbers.

Formal disputes (objections and appeals)

You have the right to file an objection (or an appeal for the Canada Pension Plan or Employment Insurance) if you disagree with an assessment, determination, or decision. For more information about objections and related deadlines, go to Objections, appeals, disputes, and relief measures.

CRA service feedback program

Service complaints

You can expect to be treated fairly under clear and established rules, and get a high level of service each time you deal with the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency). For more information about the Taxpayer Bill of Rights, go to Taxpayer Bill of Rights.

You may provide compliments or suggestions, and if you are not satisfied with the service you received:

1. Try to resolve the matter with the employee you have been dealing with or call the telephone number provided in the correspondence you received from the CRA. If you do not have contact information for the CRA, go to Contact the Canada Revenue Agency.
2. If you have not been able to resolve your service-related issue, you can ask to discuss the matter with the employee's supervisor
3. If the problem is still not resolved, you can file a service-related complaint by filling out Form RC193, Service Feedback. For more information and to learn how to file a complaint, go to Submit service feedback

If you are not satisfied with how the CRA has handled your service-related complaint, you can submit a complaint to the Office of the Taxpayers' Ombudsperson.

Reprisal complaints

If you have received a response regarding a previously-submitted service complaint or a formal review of a CRA \(Canada Revenue Agency\) decision, and feel you were not treated impartially by a CRA employee, you can submit a reprisal complaint by filling out Form RC459, Reprisal Complaint. For more information, go to Reprisal Complaints.

Due dates

When a due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or public holiday recognized by the CRA, your return is considered on time if the CRA receives it or if it is postmarked on or before the next business day. For more information, go to Due dates and payment dates.

Retirement income summary table

Use the following table to find out where to report your retirement income on your return.

If you entered an amount on line 11500 of your return, you are eligible for pension income splitting (lines 11600 and 21000) and the pension income amount (line 31400).

Use the chart for line 31400 of the Federal Worksheet to calculate the amount to enter on line 31400 of your return or on line 1 of your Form T1032, Joint Election to Split Pension Income, if applicable.
